Please note:

- A critical skills work visa shall be issued for a period not exceeding five (5) years.
- A spouse and dependent children of a holder of a critical skills work visa shall be issued with an appropriate visa valid (for example, a visitor's visa exceeding 3 months) for a period not exceeding the period of validity of the applicant's critical skills work visa. Dependent children of school-going age accompanying the holder of a critical skills work visa must be issued with study visas
- Should it become evident that the prospective employee i.e. applicant would not be able to meet one or more of the requirements, the South African employer should request the Director: Visas at the Department of Home Affairs to waive the requirements in terms of section 31(2)(c) of the Immigration Act, as amended. The employer must motivate each request with full particulars and background, and should the waiver be granted, confirmation thereof must be submitted with the application
- Status / progress reports are not provided during the above-mentioned processing period. Furthermore, no 'express service' for processing visa applications is available – complete applications are adjudicated on a First-In-First-Out basis.
- Visa applications which are not complete shall not be taken in to be processed. It is therefore the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that his or her visa application is complete as per the checklist.
- In the case of inconsistencies and / or incomplete information, our office reserves the right to request the applicant to submit additional documentation to substantiate the visa application.
- Documentation that accompanies the visa application shall be original or copies authenticated by the issuing authority of the country of origin and where necessary, translated into English and certified as a correct translation by a sworn translator at the expense of the applicant.
- A visa issued at a foreign mission of the Republic of South Africa shall be affixed to the passport of the applicant and shall only be valid if an entry stamp has been affixed thereto at the port of entry and the date of such entry stamp shall be the effective date.
